

What is Luxury?

Luxury is an Experience
- an index to life

We measure our lives in experiences, not in years, not in time. How often we create those experiences, their richness and their depth is what make for a truly luxurious life.

Luxury is
The ability to Take a Pause

It is the ability to take time out from the pressures of daily life, let the mind re-charge, let it re-set, to let your mind breathe and be free.

There is no greater luxury than a free mind.

Creators of the

Masterpiece

We think from the perspective of what a space should feel like; what state-of-mind it should evoke; what luxuries it must provide-- and then begin planning a project. It becomes the crux of our decisions on what destinations to choose, which locations and what the design of our villas should be. We believe that the truest experiences are located where the mindscape is in harmony with the landscape
